

Branch 21

Branch 21 is a small branch headed by Samuel Braund, who married Mary Alford in Exeter, Devon in 1834. In the census returns, Samuel claims to have been born in Exeter about 1806 but it is possible that he may actually have been born in Iddesleigh, Devon and therefore belong branch 6. His wife came from Winkleigh, which is close to Iddesleigh. All Samuel and Mary's known descendants remained in Exeter for the next four generations.
