

About You

Family History begins with you, and your descendants will want to know about your life. Start to make a scrapbook of your life with information about yourself. You can add photographs, copies of certificates, party invitations, programmes for sports events or concerts - anything that will help someone in the future learn about you, your life, hobbies, likes and dislikes. Begin by filling in these pages. You do not have to answer all the questions.

Full Name:

Nickname:

Where were you born?:

What is your date of birth?:

Names of your parents or whoever looks after you:

Who else is in your family?:

What pets do you have?:

Where do you live?:

What do you enjoy doing?:

Who are your close friends?:

What sports do you enjoy?:

What is your favourite colour?:

Who is your favourite author?:

What music do you like listening to?:

What programmes do you enjoy watching?:

What school do you go to?:

What subject do you like most at school?:

What subject do you like least?:

Now ask other members of your family to answer these questions

Make a list of things that you may have at home that might help you learn about your family's history. These might include photographs, prizes, souvenirs of holidays or other heirlooms like those in our Braund Museum.